

Real work.
Real experience.

Do you want real work and real experience in South Australia's regions?

Then we need you.

If you are looking seasonal and regional work in South Australia, there are plenty of jobs opportunities on offer right now across agriculture, tourism and hospitality sectors.

Real Work — You can earn a living and also help a local community. Grow your savings and help our farmers provide food to the table for fellow South Australian's.

Real Experience — You can add something great to your resume as well as a unique and memorable life experience, a real adventure exploring regional South Australia.

Seasonal and regional work offers the chance to experience South Australia's beautiful regions, form connections with other likeminded travellers and workers and gain valuable work experience.

There are also incentives of up to $6,000 to help with relocation costs for transport and accommodation.

Discover the real opportunities for yourself and find out more at:

www.regionalwork.sa.gov.au

This program is funded by the South Australian Government and coordinated by Department of Primary Industries and Regions.

pir.sa.gov.au

Government of South Australia
Department of Primary Industries
and Regions

Real work.
Real experience.

Do you want real work and real experience in South Australia's regions?

Then we need you.

If you are looking seasonal and regional work in South Australia, there are plenty of jobs opportunities on offer right now across agriculture, tourism and hospitality sectors.

Real Work — You can earn a living and also help a local community. Grow your savings and help our farmers provide food to the table for fellow South Australian's.

Real Experience — You can add something great to your resume as well as a unique and memorable life experience, a real adventure exploring regional South Australia.

Seasonal and regional work offers the chance to experience South Australia's beautiful regions, form connections with other likeminded travellers and workers and gain valuable work experience.

There are also incentives of up to $6,000 to help with relocation costs for transport and accommodation.

Discover the real opportunities for yourself and find out more at:

www.regionalwork.sa.gov.au

This program is funded by the South Australian Government and coordinated by Department of Primary Industries and Regions.

pir.sa.gov.au

Government of South Australia
Department of Primary Industries
and Regions

Real work.
Real experience.

Do you want real work and real experience in South Australia's regions?

Then we need you.

If you are looking seasonal and regional work in South Australia, there are plenty of jobs opportunities on offer right now across agriculture, tourism and hospitality sectors.

Real Work — You can earn a living and also help a local community. Grow your savings and help our farmers provide food to the table for fellow South Australian's.

Real Experience — You can add something great to your resume as well as a unique and memorable life experience, a real adventure exploring regional South Australia.

Seasonal and regional work offers the chance to experience South Australia's beautiful regions, form connections with other likeminded travellers and workers and gain valuable work experience.

There are also incentives of up to $6,000 to help with relocation costs for transport and accommodation.

Discover the real opportunities for yourself and find out more at:

www.regionalwork.sa.gov.au

Real work.

Real experience.

Do you want real work and real experience in South Australia's regions?

Then we need you.

If you are looking seasonal and regional work in South Australia, there are plenty of jobs opportunities on offer right now across agriculture, tourism and hospitality sectors.

Real Work — You can earn a living and also help a local community. Grow your savings and help our farmers provide food to the table for fellow South Australian's.

Real Experience — You can add something great to your resume as well as a unique and memorable life experience, a real adventure exploring regional South Australia.

Seasonal and regional work offers the chance to experience South Australia's beautiful regions, form connections with other likeminded travellers and workers and gain valuable work experience.

There are also incentives of up to $6,000 to help with relocation costs for transport and accommodation.

Discover the real opportunities for yourself and find out more at:

www.regionalwork.sa.gov.au

This program is funded by the South Australian Government and coordinated by Department of Primary Industries and Regions.

pir.sa.gov.au

Government of South Australia
Department of Primary Industries
and Regions

Real work.
Real experience.

Do you want real work and real experience in South Australia's regions?

Then we need you.

If you are looking seasonal and regional work in South Australia, there are plenty of jobs opportunities on offer right now across agriculture, tourism and hospitality sectors.

Real Work — You can earn a living and also help a local community. Grow your savings and help our farmers provide food to the table for fellow South Australian's.

Real Experience — You can add something great to your resume as well as a unique and memorable life experience, a real adventure exploring regional South Australia.

Seasonal and regional work offers the chance to experience South Australia's beautiful regions, form connections with other likeminded travellers and workers and gain valuable work experience.

There are also incentives of up to $6,000 to help with relocation costs for transport and accommodation.

Discover the real opportunities for yourself and find out more at:

www.regionalwork.sa.gov.au

This program is funded by the South Australian Government and coordinated by Department of Primary Industries and Regions.

pir.sa.gov.au

Government of South Australia
Department of Primary Industries
and Regions